Announcement of Team South Africa for World Deaf Athletics Championships

Provincial Deaf Sports Federations
Schools for the Deaf

Dear Friends

This letter serves to officially announce Team South Africa for the 2012 World Deaf Athletics Championships to be held in Toronto, Canada, from 14 to 21 July 2012.

Furthermore, after much careful consideration, we have decided to appoint Martin Pillay, the Principal of Kutlwanong Resource Centre, known as Kutlwanong School for the Deaf, as Team Manager/Coach for the team.

Team South Africa

1. Gerard Kroese - male
2. Edgar Thabang Mofokeng - male
3. Meshack Mashaba - male
4. Tryphina Motsoko – female
5. Martin Pillay – Team Manager/Coach

There is only one month left before the team depart for Toronto and obviously there is a lot to do in terms of logistics and training of the team, but I would like to believe that we will be able to prepare the team thoroughly for the Championships and so we appeal to you to support the selected athletes and official.

South African Deaf Sports Federation believes in giving all our educators an equal opportunity to contribute to the betterment of Deaf sport in South Africa.

On behalf of the SADSf Executive Board, I wish to extend my congratulations to the selected athletes and official and wish them all of the very best in Canada.

Kind regards

Julius Maxajwe
President
